

Sharing knowledge

is one of the most important element of PricewaterhouseCoopers business understanding. For career minded people, it is clear to see what makes us so unique.

Sharing experience in international environment will give you opportunities for building professional experience and personal development. Due to the rapid growth of our assurance department we are planning to open Shared Service Centre for CEE in Katowice.

Currently we are looking for Associates, Senior Associates and Team Leaders with analytical skills, good command of English and one of the second language: Czech, Slovakian or Hungarian to support business processes in CEE.

If you are interested in our offer or you know somebody who might be interested:

See the opportunity on www.pwc.com/kariera